Dooley and John communing about 'the cold outside' and monitoring all that goes on in the Mews. Dooley is now four but is the eternal puppy. His latest adventure was to escape or simply lose himself in London's Hyde Park. He turned up in Barnes having probably hopped on a bus which he always enjoys and was discovered window shopping in the high street. He was delighted when an anxious John appeared, but was totally unrepentant and had already collected a bevy of new friends. Oh Dooley!

The family feared that Jackson, who had been very much the centre of attention, might object to an intruder in his very happy world. This tender picture says it all. He adores Thomas who is now a year old and they are already best friends.

Laura and Niamh are a charming pair so obviously ‘tuned into’ each other. Laura was there when Niamh was born and has always loved her. Not only inseparable friends and playmates, but also very successful in the Show Ring and Junior Handling competitions. They made it to the finals of Crufts last year. Best of luck, we’re watching you two.

Constance and Brocqy on Woolacombe Beach where they often spend holidays crabbing, building sand castles and generally ‘bossing’ the beach. They’re wonderful playmates and dearly love one another. Emily says “I believe Brocqy thinks he’s a person and Constance thinks she’s a dog.” Well, what could make more sense?

Hamish in the summer garden turning on his ‘melt-your-heart’ puppy gaze.

Victoria says “He is our first Irish and the whole family is completely in love with him.” His house sister is a large Rhodesian Ridgeback and watching them play together is hilarious. He’s always up for a spot of fun.

Mister Mac on holiday in Ireland, tracing his Celtic roots at the Drombeg Stone Circle in County Cork. He is a strong athletic nine year old, head of Jean's pack and an expert hunter. Jean brought him from Holland and is passionate about preserving the hunting skills of the breed. Mister Mac, is of course, a greatly loved pet and wonderful companion.

Forget the London Olympics . . . just look at these two powerful athletes, although it looks as if Pippa might be doing all the work. Finn enjoys kayaking on Dinton Pastures Lake, and Pippa says “he keeps an eye on proceedings, making sure that we take the right course”. They are both great water people canoeing on Loch Erne and gently relaxing on canal narrow boats.

What a wonderful world.

Our cover girl, Liberty Belle with Imogen who has loved all the family irish Terriers. Libbs is the latest puppy and she's about as energetic and bouncy as they come and wants to play, play, play - life is a non stop rugby scrum. We call her 'Miss Naughty Face' and she more than lives up to her name.

This is a beautiful study of an Irish terrier. It is Horatio (Von der Emsmuhle) and seems to capture their quintessential character, alert, amused, watchful, ready for off yet warm as the sunshine . . . and of course, has that irresistible twinkle which captivates us all. It seems he refused to be photographed sitting down until they'd swept away the brambles.

Jackpot and Morris settling down for a cosy winter nap although the chair looks like a snug fit. They have always been devoted friends born in the same week in the same house. They have never been separated . They live in Budapest with Andrea who enjoys extreme sports. Morris is part of her group but Jackpot is always ready to welcome them when they return home.

Maximo and Minze are brother and sister, and are both beautiful successful Von der Emsmühle Show Champions. They are full of fun but gentle and affectionate too - surely the perfect Irish Terrier temperament.
 Merry Christmas and 'the top o' the morning' to one and all.
