

Irish Terriers 2015

Portrait of Zorba by his 'mum' the leading portrait painter and war artist' Arabella Dorman.
A beautiful painting which perfectly captures the 'soul of the Micks'.
Arabella says "He's just my boy, and does everything with me. We all absolutely adore him."

Amber the ‘Flying Dog’ displaying the extraordinary athleticism of the Irish Terrier. She is an adored pet, but also doing well in the Show ring. They live in Jersey and Agata says “We’re all in love with Amber, she’s our beautiful girl full of energy and fun and makes us laugh every day.”

Winnie and Henry doing the what comes naturally. Any season, any day we all love to hunt or ‘pretend’ to hunt for rabbits. They live in Macclesfield and this is the forest, a wonderful place for dogs. Roger says “I’ve never walked them without somebody stopping to say what a lovely pair they are!”

Beatrice and Juno, surely one of the most charming pictures of a little girl and a beloved pet. Juno has a wonderful life living by the sea with walks in the New Forest and a lively household of 5 children and a ginger cat. What could be more perfect? She's an impressive performer on the trampoline (see back cover)

Oscar plane spotting in the garden (he lives under the flight path to Edinburgh Airport.) He's a great family pet and adored by his human siblings. He's an excellent footballer, (see back cover) frisbee catcher, and very good at 'Spring Lamb Leaps' undoubtedly coached by his friends in the picture. He's very sociable and shares play dates with two Irish Terrier 'girls' Molly and Erin. Katherine says

APRIL2015 "People stop their cars to tell us how beautiful he is!"

Figures in a landscape. Cuilin, Caorunn and Cuibha on the beach in front of Bamburgh Castle. 3 marvellous dogs who are all experts in Obedience, Agility and Flyball. Dearly loved by Joy, they seem to fill every part of her life. They're as bright as buttons and take part in everthing, not least their character parts in the fancy dress parade at the Fun Day.

Nonny and Alexander in their garden which is surrounded by fields and woods and the New Forest . . . plenty of space for adventures.

Nonny has 4 children in the family to consider, 2 in their 20s and 2 little ones but she undoubtedly rules the roost.

The suspicion is that she is most fond of her Pa.

She follows the shooting but we don't enquire as to her level of obedience or expertise except in the matter of poaching other dogs' birds.

She's now 11 and her natural charm has increased with age as indeed has her zest for life and need to challenge every rule.

Jo Jo the Lion Tamer. He was careful of him on first sight but ended up leaping over his back and pulling his tail. He's a young dog, very playful and pleased with life and a great hero on a challenging climb up Scafell Pike raising funds for a medical charity (see back cover). Elliott said "We did it for our Grandma." He's a great member of the family and Lisa remarked "We have two boys now

Paddy The Jump Jet . . . so full of joy and energy. He could be any one of Jean's splendid puppies. All Jean's dogs are fit, playful and supremely confident. He has a special way of training and socialising them based on "Love and Trust" which is certainly impressive. They are stunning dogs.

Two ladies waiting for their tea . . . Pepper Pot and Ginger Rogers. in their beautiful garden. which leads out into fields and woodland, a wonderful place for dogs. Ginger is generous and easy going and loves the rest of her family, animals and others! There are two more house dogs, plus chickens, tortoises, donkeys and horses. This was her first photoshoot, and she played it with the SEPTEMBER2015 expertise of her famous namesake!

A beautiful picture of Ava in a perfect setting. She and Mark are inseperable companions and great Fell walkers having covered many miles together. She recently celebrated her fifth birthday at the summit of Helvellyn in the Lake District. They are planning to complete the full round of all 214 Wainright Fells. Ava must surely be the ideal walking companion . . . up for it all.

Red is the ultimate old fashioned gentleman even tolerating his not absolutely favourite cat. Jennifer and Tony say that every day with Red is a 'doggy joy'. He's so intuitive and understands everything about us. Our friends adore him too and he does a great job as a 'pat dog' in the local care home. He 'obliges' with a Christmas picture every year, Santa, Rudolph or in cap and bells.

NOVEMBER 2015 His look says "I do this only for you." Bless him.

Storm ‘carolling’ in the beautiful woods and mountains north of Oslo. He and Eigil spend days camping out in summer and winter, “keeping in touch with nature.” We both love the freedom of the woods and mountains.”He suits my lifestyle so well, he is my perfect Breed.”

MERRY CHRISTMAS ONE AND ALL!

Dylan wishes you a very Happy New Year!

Dylan like all Micks will never give up a ball and a spare was necessary. But he twigged very quickly that he could juggle them both in his mouth and run off. They now take three. David says “He’s the absolute delight of our lives. Everyone loves him. He’s still very young but last summer he learnt to swim in the sea with me. It was one of those magical times.”
